Our intention is to create a journey that addresses the goals and program elements as listed in each program description. All participants and families are advised to note that journey itineraries WILL change. When changes are made staff incorporate student goals and interests, they adjust to the health of the group, & sometimes make changes necessary because of, problems with transportation, political unrest or any other unforeseen circumstances, we will do all possible to structure the journey so that it stays true to its original intent.

Concerning Travel

Participants are asked to travel with their group from the U.S. on seats reserved by International Doorways. International Doorways blocks group space, providing the most economical routing available on quality flights. Participants and their families are responsible for any increase in air fares levied by the airlines as well as any fees based on ticket changes or early program dismissal ticket changes. All participants are responsible for arranging their own transportation to & from the departure gateway city as well as the final program destination.
